LACK OF FUNDS PREVENTS TRIAL

The Third Circuit Court's regular term opens at Kailua on Thursday, but the court won't do any business with juries. Neither a Grand Jury nor a trial jury was even summoned, as the law contemplates that they should be, for the appropriation for the circuit had been found to be wholly inadequate, and there was no money available for jury fees.
In view of the lack of funds, Judge Matthewsman decided not to call jurors at all, and he merely complied with the law as far as opening the term was concerned. This is what other circuit judges have had to do before.
Luckily there was only one criminal case in the Third Circuit this time, but as far as that case is concerned the lack of funds means an absolute failure of justice. The defendant is a Korean, charged with an assault, and as a result of the lack of funds he is held in jail unindicted and unable to secure a trial. Under the law, it is stated, he is entitled to a release on the ground that he is not given his constitutional right to a speedy trial. In other words, the Kailua circuit is not able to enforce the criminal laws.
County Attorney Williams went on the Kailua to attend the circuit court, but there were no criminal matters taken up.—Hilo Herald.

ELECTION AT HILO MAY BE CONTESTED BY MOIR

Unless all signs go for naught there will be a protest filed in the matter of the recent elections owing to the manner in which the voting was conducted at Waiala. Should the protest be filed and should it be pressed to a successful issue the result will be that John T. Moir, the present chairman of the Board of Supervisors, and incidentally the most valuable member of that body, will be elected a member again, and Keaki, the former policeman who ran on the Democratic-Home Rule ticket, will be thrown out.
The total vote for the North and South Hilo Supervisors stood thus:
Desha, 294; Keaki, 371; Moir, 337; Todd, 598.
Naturally on this showing, Keaki and Todd were elected, but in Waiala the candidates polled thus:
Desha, 89; Keaki, 102; Moir, 58; Todd, 162.
If, as is claimed by the friends of Moir, there was a grave irregularity in the manner of conducting the voting at Waiala and the vote there should be thrown out the total will leave Moir with ten votes more than Keaki.
Owing to the absence of Moir in Honolulu it cannot be stated definitely that he will consent to protesting the election, especially as it is no secret that he was rather gratified than otherwise when he found that he was supposedly defeated.
The basis of the protest will be that the chairman at Waiala, Henry West, a Democrat-Home Ruler, did not obey the instructions laid down for his guidance. The County Act says that the duties of the election board shall be among other matters:
"To record the name of each person polling a vote, and also to check off upon the register of voters furnished by the Board of Registration the name of each voter polling a vote."
It is claimed that in Waiala no record was kept of each person polling a vote and that the names were simply checked off the official list. Whether this would be sufficient of an error to invalidate each vote so cast but not recorded is a matter to be settled by the courts though the claim would seem to have much merit in it.
At present the records are all signed and sealed. Enclosed in canvas bags the papers are in the possession of the County Clerk, nor can the packages be opened without the order of the Supreme Court of Hawaii.
Current rumor had it that Carl Smith had been instructed to commence proceedings with a view to contesting the election on behalf of Moir, but he stated positively yesterday that no such definite action had been taken. He naturally refused to give an opinion as to the validity of any protest under the circumstances claimed.
Henry West, who was chairman of the Waiala election board is just now looking very hard after the job of Road Supervisor for South Hilo which is at present held by Norman Lyman. The change in the political complexion of the County Board will probably prevent the reappointment of Lyman and West can think of nobody more fit to hold the job than he himself.—Hilo Tribune, Nov. 20.

NO COOLIES WANTED

New York, Oct. 21.—That Chinese "coolie" labor is unsuitable for digging the Panama canal is the opinion of Charles E. Magoon, ex-Governor of the Canal zone.
Magoon believes that the West Indian negro laborer is the best that could be obtained for the purpose in view, and said that, in spite of reports to the contrary, those negroes now employed on the canal work were efficient and effective.
"It is my individual opinion that coolie labor won't do on the isthmus," said Magoon. "The principal reason is that the United States Government would never countenance the system of peonage to which the contractors would have to resort to get anything like effective work out of Chinese laborers. We have now between 20,000 and 30,000 Chinese working on the isthmus, and what I say is the result of observation. These will not do a stroke of work more than they have to, and when they have saved up a little money they quit work without warning, start a little shop and graduate into merchants."
"In other parts of the world where such labor is employed they are under the absolute control of the contractors, who get effective service by forcing the men to work. Slave driving is too harsh a term to employ in this connection, but you may quote me as saying coolies do most effective work under a peonage system."
"In my opinion the West Indian negro furnishes the best solution of the problem. While it is true that those negroes who are now on the isthmus were somewhat ignorant when they arrived, having had practically no acquaintance with any industry except that of sugar planting, they have proved adaptable."

SHOT BY PET DOG

Sylvester Kahikola and his wife Amana were shot yesterday afternoon by their pet dog. Part of a charge of bird shot struck the abdomen of the woman and the shoulder of the man, but neither was seriously injured.
Kahikola had been hunting and returned to the house for more ammunition. There was one shell in the gun and the woman was handing him some additional shells when the pet dog jumped up and in some manner pulled the trigger, discharging the gun.
The patrol wagon took the injured people to the Queen's hospital where their wounds were dressed. In neither case did the shot penetrate the flesh.

WAR DEPARTMENT SILENT

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18.—Officials of the war department refused to make any statement this morning relative to the course of President Roosevelt in threatening to disband an entire battalion of the Twenty-fifth infantry if the names of the Brownsville rioters were not divulged. When asked if a copy of the official order on the subject could be obtained Major General F. C. Ainsworth, military secretary through whose hands all army orders pass, replied that the department would give out nothing on the subject for the present. He said:

"For some time the department has been doing its utmost to place the responsibility for this riot. It has not received the report of Inspector General Carlington. It would be very unwise to make public at this time the steps we are taking in the investigation."
White House officials also refused to discuss the order read to the negro soldiers by General Carlington.
